

Industrial Plastics Warranty Disclosure

Industrial Plastics warrants that all products shall be free from defects, and to be able to withstand normal weathering for the specified warranty period from the date of delivery, providing the materials are used in applications approved in the product guide or approved in writing by Industrial Plastics Pty Ltd.

The company shall not under this warranty be liable for any defect resulting from fire, force majeure, earthquake, flood, piercing hail, malicious damage, cyclone, abuse by machinery, equipment or people, excessive pressure or stress from any source, subgrade settlement, or any event beyond the reasonable control of Industrial Plastics.

Any claim for any alleged breach of this warranty must be made in writing to the company within 30 days after the alleged defect is first noticed.

The company's liability for breach of this warranty shall be limited to repairing or replacing the defective materials, using such workmanship as should result in providing the prorated performance remaining under this warranty.

Under no circumstances shall the company's liability under this warranty extend to, direct, indirect or consequential damages, arising from loss of production or other losses including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing losses due to a personal injury and product liability owing to the alleged breach of this warranty.

This warranty is non-transferable and is non-assignable. This warranty is given, in lieu of all other warranties either expressed or implied and by accepting delivery of the product the purchaser waives all such other possible warranties except those specifically given.
