

Case study

Air Intake & Wash Water Assembly

Summary

Industrial Plastics completed the fabrication and delivery of two air intake manifolds and two wash water full assemblies. This project required fabricating multiple products to their individual specifications with full MDR completion. The products were successfully transported to the satisfied customer.

Product Description

Air Intake and Wash Water Assembly

Industry

Mining

Location

Victoria, Australia

